

THE running order for The House Of Love shows at the ICA this week had almost been finalised as the Maker went to press — and it bears little relation to the one previously mooted. There's no mention of Pete Wylie, The Only Ones' Peter Perrett, Swing Out Sister or Wayne Hussey who was incorrectly added to the bill by some papers last week.

Mission manager Tony Perrin confirmed to the Maker last week that Hussey had been approached to appear at one of the shows but had to turn it down due to recording commitments.

The line up now features Pere Ubu and Was Not Was on Tuesday, The Rainbirds and Frank Tovey on Wednesday, Heidi Berry on Thursday and The Lilac Time on Friday and Saturday. All shows are sold out.
