The House Of Love is a South London quartet with a natural knack for making mesmerizing, catchy pop songs. The band released its first LP in 1988, earning them much critical acclaim as well as Alternative radio airplay in this country. "I Don't Know Why I Love You" has been doing the rounds for the past month and has propelled the album into the Alternative chart's Top 5. The sales story is enjoying steady growth weekly, and it's no wonder. All you have to do is listen; it's our bet you won't be able to resist that line, "You got no mercy, 'cause you got no mercy". The band begins a six week U.S. tour in May. Diane Tameech
