

SCORING THE CLUBSSATURDAY, JUNE 16*House of Love at the Roxy.

▪ They were gonna be giants, they were gonna be huge, they were gonna rule the earth (just ask their slightly ego-centric lead vocalist), but got a bit sidetracked on the way. Well, you unfamiliar types, House of Love is kinda like Big Country minus the pomp, or Cactus World News with a chance at the brass ring. Guitar pop, in other words, but with a British Isles flair. KROQ sensitivity will be in full regalia this eve, comprendo? Don't know who the openers are, likely to be like-minded, janglin' locals with nasally vocals. (Johnny Angel)
