

SINGLES OF THE WEEK IN ANY OTHER WEEK

HOUSE OF LOVE: The Girl
With The Loneliest Eyes
(Fontana)

CUD: Oh No Won't Do
(A&M)

Two bands to blow Steven Wells' pathetic 'Indie Music Must Die' theory out of the boiling water of his own discontent. Neither is on an indie label for a kick-off (but what indie band is?) and neither for 'We Have All The Time In The World' by John Barry and Hal David, which was originally sung by the great Satchmo in On Her Majesty's Secret Service. QED, it is a thrilling sprawl of cinematic majesty. This is especially neat, since it means there really is a spy in the House Of Love. Welcome back, Guy(s).
