The House Of Love

THE HOUSE OF LOVE are:- a five piece band from Camberwell who signed to Creation last year and have since made two singles SHINE ON and REAL ANIMAL. Their next single CHRISTINE will be released in Feb/March, while a debut album is to be recorded in January for a March release. THE HOUSE OF LOVE have just finished tours with The Mighty Lemon Drops, Echo And The Bunnymen and The Triffids.

THE HOUSE OF LOVE is:- also a novel by writer Anais Nin.

THE HOUSE OF LOVE are:-

Guy Chadwick, vocals, guitar.- Guy bears an uncanny resemblance to Jim Carrol and it has been said that he communes with spirits while he himself regards Bert Weedon as a more obvious influence. Unusually enough for a Creation band Guy reckons The House Of Love are influenced by 'flowers and films, and extreme suffering' he also writes the songs and admits they're 'articulate and soothing'.

Terry Bickers, guitar.- As a musician Terry has 'been around a bit' and is probably one of the most experienced in the band, meanwhile he still finds time to run what resembles a guest house in Camberwell which helps him to relax between bouts of listening to Radio 3 and Wire Records.

Chris Groothuizen, bass.- Chris wants 'to be an astronaut', likes Tom Waits and The Stones, he would 'ideally and realistically' like to release 5 box sets of albums.... a year... on CBS. He is 'much fatter than I'd like to be'.

Pete Evans, drums.- Pete is 'the quiet one' and was stolen, silently, from another band to complete The House Of Love. He likes Charlie Watts and Bill Wyman, Sly and Robbie, and old Stax trax.

THE HOUSE OF LOVE have been called:- "mesmerising, dramatic, and atmospheric", "delicate", "a baby band sprung wholy formed from the womb".
