THE HOUSE OF LOVE

Following recent speculation, it can now be confirmed that Terry Bickers has left the House Of Love. Guitarist Bickers had become increasingly estranged from the rest of the group in recent months to a point where he left during halfway through the second leg of the recent tour.
At present, no permanent replacement has been decided upon but the recently announced January tour will go ahead. Simon Walker, from the Dave Howard Singers, who filled in on the recent dates, will play guitar.
Terry Bickers did, however, complete recording the group's forthcoming Fontana lp set for release in the spring.

The House Of Love's forthcoming single, a newly recorded version of "Shine On", has been slightly delayed and will now be released on January 22nd.
The House Of Love also recently recorded a new John Peel session without Terry, showcasing new material; it will be transmitted early in the new year.

December 18th 1989.
