The House of Love release a new album, their first in eleven years, Days Run Away on Art and Industry Records on Monday 21st February. The album also sees original guitarist Terry Bickers back in the band after his departure in 1990. The album also features original drummer Pete Evans.

A single Love You Too Much will be available as a limited edition 7" released February 7th. The album was recorded and mixed by Pat Collier and was recorded at Gravity Shack in the summer of 2004. The Full track listing is:

- Love You Too Much
- Gotta Be That Way
- Maybe You Know
- Kinda Love
- Money And Time
- Days Run Away
- Already Gone
- Wheels
- Kit Carter
- Anyday I Want

The band have also announced details of a show at London's ICA on February 10th 2005. Tickets will be available via 0207 930 3647 or the following websites, tickets@ica.org.uk & www.seetickets.com.

The House of Love released their self-titled debut album on Creation Records in 1988. Produced by Pat Collier, it became an instant classic and included the monumental single Christine. The album was followed in the same year by the single Destroy The Heart, which grabbed the top spot in John Peel's Festive Fifty of 1988.

1989 saw the band sign to Fontana. Their debut album for the label, again self titled, released the following year, spawned the singles Shine On, I Don't Know Why I Love You & The Beatles And The Stones. Two further albums followed for Fontana, Babe Rainbow (1992) and Audience With the Mind (1993).
